DECLARATION OF CHRISTINE SHEPPARD

Sir:

I, Christine Sheppard, being duly sworn, do hereby declare and state:

1. I am employed in the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department of NCR Corporation. I am located in the London (United Kingdom) office of NCR Corporation.

2. I work with Michael Chan, Senior Attorney in the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department of NCR Corporation, who is located in the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department of NCR Corporation.

3. I am responsible for patent formalities for the Financial Solutions Group of NCR Corporation.

4. I work with inventors (including Matthew A. Ward, Roderick J.M. Macleod, and Michael Waller who are inventors in the above-identified U.S. patent application, Serial No. 09/943,113) located in the United Kingdom to prepare patent applications for filing first in the U.K. Patent Office.

5. On August 30, 2000 or thereabouts, I was asked to obtain a docket number (that is a unique identifier) for a prepared patent application entitled as identified above. On August 30, 2000, I requested by email, a docket number from my counterpart in the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department. I received an email reply on August 30, 2000 from my counterpart in the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department (See Exhibit A for copy of the Invention Disclosure submitted by the inventors).

6. On September 1, 2000, a priority patent application Serial No. 0021371.0 corresponding to the above-identified U.S. patent application Serial No. 09/943,113 was filed in the U.K. Patent Office.

7. On November 9, 2001, four sets of U.S. patent application papers (including copy of specification, claims, drawings, declaration of inventors, and assignment for inventors) corresponding to the above-identified U.S. patent application, Serial No. 09/943,113, were received by from the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department for forwarding to inventors Cudd, Ward, Macleod, and Waller, the inventors in the above-identified U.S. patent application, to sign the declaration and the assignment (see Exhibit B for copy of cover letter received with the four sets of U.S. patent application papers on November 9, 2001). As of November 9, 2001, none of the aforesaid inventors was in the employ of NCR Corporation.

8. On November 14, 2001, the U.S. patent application papers received on November 9, 2001 from the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department were forwarded to inventors Ward, Macleod, and Waller at their home addresses, which are "66 Avignon Road, Brockley, London SE4 2JT", "21 Kerrington Court, 148 Uxbridge Road, London W12 8AA", and "1 Hayes Crescent, London NW11 0DG", respectively, for execution by the inventors (see Exhibit C for a copy of the letters sent by Royal Mail Recorded Delivery, to inventors Ward, Macleod, and Waller on November 14, 2001).

9. On December 7, 2001, or thereabouts, I spoke with the mother of Richard Cudd on the telephone. She stated that she was going to Richard Cudd's wedding which was to be held in Australia. At that time I asked her if she would be able to obtain the signature of Richard Cudd and on December 10, 2001 I sent her one set of the documents

10. On January 23, 2002, or thereabouts, I received from the mother of Richard Cudd the documents that were sent to her on December 10, 2001 (see Exhibit D for copy of the letter accompanying the documents received from her on January 23, 2002 or thereabouts). The documents received from her included the declaration and the assignment executed by Richard Cudd.

11. Each of inventors Ward, Macleod, and Waller has an Employment Agreement with NCR Corporation. The Employment Agreements obliges them, inter alia, ..."whether during or after their employment with the Company, execute any document and do any acts necessary to enable the Company or its assigns to obtain patent protection in any part of the world in respect of any invention..." (see Exhibit E for Intellectual Property portion of each of inventors Ward, Macleod and Waller's Employment Agreement).

12. As of today, February 25, 2002, the documents sent to inventors Ward, Macleod, and Waller on November 14, 2001 have not been returned to me.

13 I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further, that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

WHEREFORE, I hereby subscribe by name to the foregoing declaration.

Signed at London, United Kingdom this 25th day of February 2002.

SUBSCRIBED AND SWORN to by the said Christine Kathleen M Sheppard, at London, England, this 25th

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL CHAN

Sir:

I, Michael Chan, being duly sworn, do hereby declare and state:

1. I am employed as a Senior Attorney in the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department of NCR Corporation. I am located in the Dayton offices of the NCR Corporation.

2. I work with Christine Sheppard, Paralegal in the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department, who is located in the London offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department of NCR Corporation.

3. I am responsible for preparing and prosecuting patent applications for the Financial Solutions Group of NCR Corporation.

4. On August 2, 2001 or thereabouts, an electronic copy of the specification, claims, and drawings for priority patent application Serial No. 0021371.0 filed September 1, 2000 in the U.K. Patent Office was received from the London offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department. I used the electronic copy to prepare a corresponding U.S. patent application for filing in the U.S. Patent Office.

5. On August 30, 2001, a copy of U.S. patent application papers (including copy of specification, claims, drawings, and an unsigned declaration) corresponding to the above-identified U.S. patent application, Serial No. 09/943,113, were filed in the U.S. Patent Office. The above-identified U.S. patent application claims priority of priority patent application Serial No. 0021371.0 filed September 1, 2000 in the U.K. Patent Office.

6. On October 9, 2001, a Notice to File Missing Parts of Application (Filing Date Granted) dated October 3, 2001 from the U.S. Patent Office was received in the Dayton offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department.

7. On November 5, 2001 or thereabouts, four sets of U.S. patent application papers (including copy of specification, claims, drawings, declaration of inventors, and assignment for inventors) corresponding to the above-identified U.S. patent application, Serial No. 09/943,113, were sent from the Dayton offices to the London offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department for subsequent forwarding to joint inventors Richard Cudd, Matthew A. Ward, Roderick J.M. Macleod, and Michael Waller to sign the declaration and the assignment.

8. On January 15, 2002 or thereabouts, upon realizing that the U.S. patent application papers including executed declaration of inventors for the above-identified U.S. patent application, Serial No. 09/943,113 would most likely not be received in the Dayton Offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department for filing in the U.S. Patent Office, I started to prepare a Petition under 37 C.F.R. Section 1.47(a) along with its accompanying papers for filing in the U.S. Patent Office.

9. On February 28, 2002, a set of documents including Christine Sheppard's affidavit and its accompanying exhibits were received from the London offices of the Intellectual Property Section of the Law Department. The set of documents included an original set of U.S. patent application papers executed by Richard Cudd.

10. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further, that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

WHEREFORE, I hereby subscribe my name to the foregoing declaration.

Signed at Dayton, Ohio this 4TH day of March 2002.
